ABOUT ME

Hello, my name is Antoun Hani. I did not join the College of Computer Science, but rather I joined the College of Education, Department of Science, but I love programming and I love computers, so I learned programming through many courses.
I took CS50 course and specialized in Front End

PROJECTS

chat application

the final project of cs50 course

I used HTML, CSS, JavaScript and Flask

(Leon - Kasper - Elzero) templates

I got the templates from the internet and created them myself

They are single-page sites that are responsive to all screens. I used HTML, CSS, Javascript, etc

My Portfolio

It's my website, I used Html, css, javaScript flask etc
